[salutation]

I am writing to you today about Ibrahim Ahmed Mahmoud al Qosi (ISN 54), who has served over five years without any due process or right to habeas corpus. I understand that he has been through one hearing, but it was thrown out.

I also understand from that testimony that he denied having anything to do with al Qaeda or terrorism.

I urge you to afford him a fair trial. According to many of the transcripts of detainees in Guantanamo certainly do not seem fair. I ask that you help him find a civilian attorney and to give his attorney access to him. He is being charged with a serious crime, and we as Americans value a fair justice system. What is in place in Guantanamo is certainly not fair.

Sincerely,
